

SCOTTISH SOLO Sailing.

Event guidelines and Scoring. 2018 >

Races	Level rating first past the post race. RYA appendix A.
1 day events	First 3 races of an event, with 1 discard to give an event score. Event scoring 2 scoring races are required from each event to count towards the traveller series. Where only one race is sailed, then, if the rest of the event is abandoned (for any reason), the second race will be scored for all of those who entered the event as “did not start”, i.e. points equal to event entries plus one. Prizes at discretion of hosting club.
Traveller series	The series usually consists of a number of one day events, or the first day of any 2 day regatta. See Solo website calendar for event schedule. See results page for number of events to count for eligibility to series, (usually 4) 1 must be from an inland and 1 must be from a sea event. (new 2018) Then best 4 pairs of event scores to count for travellers result. Series Ties will be broken using RYA A8, except replace “series score” with “best pairs of scores”. It is each competitor’s responsibility to check the overall results for correct sail number used and results for each event, as the sail number used at each event will be that used on the series result table. The results sheet is colour coded to show those who qualify and those who require 1 more event. Any discrepancy must be emailed to the Scottish class representative and race results coordinator as soon as possible for correction. New for 2010, gold fleet subdivision (trial). A gold fleet member is someone who is in top 25% at any event of this and/or the previous year. And/Or has a final series result in the top 25% of the eligible entrants from the previous 5 years
Ben Ledi Trophy	Event of a minimum of 2 races, ALL races to count. See Deed of Gift for special entry conditions. MUST be a resident in Scotland and member of NSCA.
